Booking & Cancellation Policy: Full payment is required to access to the training. No refund will be paid once payment is received and the link to the training files has been issued to the training participant. In the event that payment has been received and initial online access is not possible due to technical problems with the Gateway For Giving website which can be verified by Enrich Australia and this is not rectified within working seven days, a full refund will be made. Enrich Australia will not be liable under any circumstances for any loss due to cancellation of a participant's access to the training program files if it is found that a breach of its copyright has been made. Information provided in this registration form will be entered into our database for the purpose of processing registrations and payments. We may also use it to provide you with updates and information on our services. The option to unsubscribe from this service is available at any time.
